

Website Terms

Prepared 18 September 2026 | English version

Use of this website

These terms concern use of the TUREDDI YACHTS website. Yacht construction, purchase, brokerage, supply, charter or other services require their own agreements with the identified contracting entity. Website use or submission of an enquiry does not itself conclude a yacht contract or reserve a vessel.

1 Website operator

TUREDDI GROUP LIMITED is incorporated in England and Wales under company number 15210693, with its registered office at 35 Dover Street, Mayfair, London, W1S 4NQ, United Kingdom. It operates internationally, including through its permanent establishment in Italy (Codice Fiscale 91066550467) and shipyard operations in the Kingdom of Bahrain. TUREDDI YACHTS is the brand used on this website. The Italian permanent establishment is part of TUREDDI GROUP LIMITED. References to the group, shipyards or international operations do not make every company jointly responsible for every transaction. Legal and privacy enquiries: legal@turedDIGroup.com. Marketing and administration: administration@turedDIGroup.com. Postal correspondence may be addressed to the registered office, marked for the Legal Department.

2 Information about yachts

Images, renderings, arrangements, dimensions, speeds, ranges, equipment, classifications, construction materials, availability, prices and delivery indications are general information unless expressly incorporated into a signed agreement. Renderings may show options or concepts. Performance depends on the final specification and operating conditions. Ask the Shipyard Sales Team for current, project-specific information.

We aim to keep information accurate and may correct errors or update material. Nothing in these terms permits misleading statements or overrides a representation or obligation that cannot lawfully be excluded. A signed construction or sale agreement and its agreed technical specification govern the relevant transaction; mandatory consumer protections remain applicable.

3 Enquiries and registrations

Information you submit must be accurate and you must have authority to provide another person's details. Do not send unnecessary identity documents, financial records or sensitive personal information through general forms. An acknowledgement confirms receipt only. A broker registration requires express written acceptance defining the client, project and protection period. Commission terms require a separate written agreement. The Broker Relationship framework and Broker Client Registration form explain that process.

4 Intellectual property

Website text, designs, drawings, photographs, renderings, videos, logos and other materials belong to TUREDDI or the relevant rights holders. You may view the website and retain reasonable extracts for personal use or internal evaluation of a genuine business enquiry, preserving ownership notices. Commercial republication, advertising, copying of designs, systematic extraction or use of branding requires the relevant rights holder's written permission, except where law permits otherwise. Access does not transfer intellectual property rights.

5 Acceptable use

Do not misuse the website, attempt unauthorised access, introduce malicious code, disrupt services, impersonate another person, submit unlawful content or collect personal data unlawfully. We may restrict access where reasonably necessary to protect users, systems or legal rights. Do not share any access credentials supplied for restricted materials.

6 Third-party services and availability

Links to brokers, partners, social platforms and external services are provided for convenience. Their own terms and privacy information apply to their activities. We do not control third-party websites. Partnership references describe the relevant relationship and do not confer authority on a partner to bind TUREDDI. We may maintain, alter or suspend website features and cannot promise uninterrupted availability.

7 Liability

Nothing excludes or limits liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or any liability or right that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited. Subject to that protection, and to the extent permitted by applicable law, we do not accept liability for business losses arising from reliance on general website material instead of agreed transaction documents, including lost profits, business opportunities or anticipated savings.

For consumers, nothing here removes mandatory rights or remedies. We do not exclude responsibility for foreseeable loss caused by our breach where such exclusion would be unlawful. These terms do not amend liability allocated in a separately signed contract.

8 Privacy and communications

Our Privacy Notice and Cookie Information explain relevant data handling. A confidentiality statement in an email does not replace those notices or create blanket marketing consent. Ordinary email cannot be guaranteed secure or error-free; any disclaimer is subject to duties and liabilities that cannot lawfully be excluded.

9 Changes and applicable law

Revised terms apply prospectively from their stated publication date and do not retrospectively amend separate agreements. English law governs these website terms. Business users submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales. Consumers retain the mandatory protections and competent courts available under applicable law, including where relevant in their country of residence.
